Re: Dill et al. v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Case No. 19-cv-10947 (KPF)
Scheduling and other issues re Rely Brief on Pending Section 1292 motion

Dear Judge Failla:

We write on behalf of Plaintiffs concerning Plaintiffs' Notice of Motion for their pending motion to certify an interlocutory appeal ("Motion"), filed September 1, 2020 (ECF Doc. 58). Defendant has consented to relief requested herein authorizes me to send this letter.

First, currently, pursuant to the Court's approval of our prior stipulation (ECF Doc 63), Defendant filed its opposition to the Motion on September 22 (ECF Doc 67), and our reply is due October 6. I have forgotten about the Jewish holiday of Sukkot this weekend, and Defendant has agreed we may file our reply brief on October 9.

Second, Defendant has agreed that Plaintiffs reply brief may be fifteen (15) pages rather than ten (10) as provided by the Court's Rule 4B. Plaintiffs' opening brief was only seventeen (17) rather than the twenty-five (25) permitted by the local rules. Defendant's opposition brief was twenty-one (21) pages.

If these changes are acceptable to the Court, we request that you endorse this letter to that effect.
